

Water Security Management
Assessment, Research & Technology

Specialist Group on Water Security & Safety Management

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

International
Hydrological
Programme

“Urban Resilience & Crisis Management”

Co-organized by
UNESCO-IHP – W-SMART – IWA-SGW2SM – City of Sydney
October 14 & 15, 2016, City of Sydney

CRISIS MANAGEMENT EXERCISE

From Water Stress to Flood Disaster, Sydney 2016

Australia is a country of droughts and flooding rains. This exercise will explore the structures and systems used in NSW to manage the consequences associated with flooding in a high-density urban environment. The focus will be on the roles of agencies involved in emergency response and recovery operations.

TECHNICAL PROGRAMME

1:00 - 3:00 pm

Crisis Management Exercise (CME) organized by the City of Sydney,
Facilitated by David Parsons with W-SMART Delegates as Expert -Observers.

3:15 - 4:45 pm

Session 1: Crisis Management – Assessment and Experience Sharing
CME Manager & Panel of Expert-Observers

Chair: David Parsons, Adjunct Professor QUT Centre for Disaster Mgmt.
Executive Summary of the Exercise.

Panelists: Expert-Observers Experience Sharing:
Didier Gaujous, CEO, SUEZ/Caledonienne des Eaux, New Caledonia
Bernard Michaux, Director of Operation, CILE, Belgium
Sheila Aboulouard, Direction of Health & Environment, SIAAP, France
David Donahue, Commander, NSW Police
Prof. Ilan Juran: W-SMART Perspectives
Discussion Session: Q&A